

New England HIMSS

Evening Social and Networking Event - May 12, 2015
BIOs

Moderator:

Jennifer Robinson, PMP
Project Specialist
Partners HealthCare

Jennifer Robinson is a Project Specialist at Partners HealthCare System. She manages enterprise projects in the IS Infrastructure and Security & Privacy departments. Her current projects include Identity and Access Management, Digital Loss Prevention, and Isilon for Epic implementations. Prior to Partners, Jennifer worked at the Volpe Center on NASS, CIREN and other transportation related projects. She earned her ALM degree from Harvard University, and a BS at the College of Arts & Sciences from Northeastern University. She is PMP and ITIL certified.

Panelists:

Michael Kanarellis

IT Assurance Senior Manager

Director of Wolf's Healthcare IT Practice

OVERVIEW

Michael is a Senior Manager in Wolf's Information Technology (IT) Assurance Services group where he is responsible for managing a team of healthcare security professionals to ensure that his clients receive IT security services that are tailored to their individual needs.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Michael's experience consists of over 20 years of properly scoping security/compliance/audit initiatives for organizations across all verticals with particular expertise in healthcare and managing those efforts. Michael has been involved in the managing of projects which include; IT risk management & assessments, vendor management reviews, social engineering, wireless network security, web applications, firewalls, general information security & controls, IT governance, business continuity planning, vulnerability/penetration testing, and various application security reviews. In addition to technical audits noted above, Michael has performed work in various compliance areas including Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act,(HIPAA), NIST 800-53, 800-30, 800-66, The HITECH ACT, Meaningful Use risk assessments, ISO 27001, PCI-DSS 3.0, and other state privacy laws.

EDUCATION

Graduate of Babson College

MEMBERSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Massachusetts chapter of the Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA)
New England chapter of the Information Systems Security Association (ISSA)

PRESENTATIONS AND ARTICLES

March 2015 – “Meaningful Use Attestations & IT risk assessment requirements” LeadingAge CT
October 2014 – “Protecting your IT assets from Social Engineering Attacks” Wolf Roundtable series
August 2014 – “Why Healthcare should take notice of PCI DSS” Wolf Healthcare Article Series”
March 2014- “Demystifying the HIPAA Security Risk Assessment” LeadingAge MA Healthcare Show
October 2014- “New HIPAA Rules, Enhanced Enforcement put Onus on Healthcare providers to Tighten Security.” Beckers Hospital Review

Sean Murphy, CISSP, ISSMP, HCISPP, FACHE, CPHIMS, CIPP / IT

Sean is a vice president in Leidos Health Solutions business line and serves as the organization's health information privacy and security officer. He has held CIO and CISO positions in healthcare organizations at the hospital and system levels. He retired from the US Air Force having attained the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and has held CIO and CISO positions in healthcare organizations at the hospital and system levels. His proudest professional accomplishment was his service as senior mentor in 2008-2009 to the Afghan National Police Surgeon General's Office in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. He has a master's degree in business administration from the University of South Florida, a master's degree in health services administration from Central Michigan University, and a bachelor's degree in human resource management from the University of Maryland. He is an adjunct professor at St. Leo University. He holds numerous professional certifications and is past chairman of the HIMSS Privacy and Security Committee. He is a current Fellow at the Excelsior College National Cybersecurity Institute. Sean is a featured presenter and author in numerous forums, webinars, and conferences as a recognized healthcare industry subject matter expert with white papers and contributions to health information security textbooks, including his recent publication (2015), "Health Information Security and Privacy."

Peter Paulli, Executive Consultant, Beacon Partners

Peter has 25 years of experience working in the healthcare industry. Over the last several years, he has focused on HIPAA and HITECH readiness assessments and remediation, as well as software search and selections, implementations, and project management. Peter is an experienced information technology professional and has worked in a wide variety of healthcare settings. In December 2013, he achieved designation as a Certified Information Systems Auditor by ISACA.